

PATRICK RUPINEN

Budget Officer

Patrick Rupinen is the Budget Officer for Serve Kentucky and Family Resource and Youth Services Centers. Patrick provides oversight and support for all fiscal operations, and reviews all required financial reports for state and federal funding. For more than nine years, Patrick has worked as a budget analyst for the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Patrick has built a number of departmental budgets, collaborated with budget and executive staff to develop budget proposals, and analyzed budgets to determine funding allocations and future financial needs.

